RECORD REVIEWS

McRad/Dominant force. This stuff is pretty standard thrash, good or bad we have heard it before. I imagine this stuff is pretty skateable, but as for listening, it leaves alot to be desired. The exception (there are always exceptions), is "No guns", a kind of high speed rasta funk tune that is really cool. This style continues through "Forget those years" the second and final song of side two. Could McRad be a ska-dub type band using hard core as a vehicle to forward themselves? Sounds like Bad Brains. Red Records. 810 Longfield rd. Phila, PA. 19118

Verbal Abuse/Just an American band. Due to a megawarp, I was only able to listen to the inside songs. "I hate you" is a cool tune, slow and powerful. Most of the rest is pretty fast and less powerful. Although not listed on the label or the lyric sheet, the title song is on the album and tears, cow bell and all. Another cover tune, based on the "this Bud's for you" song is also unlisted, obviously to avoid royalty tie ups. Overall a good record. Fowl Records

Shattered Faith/Live. Actually this album is only half live. The recording here is great. It sounds better than a lot of studio stuff I've heard. The band is tight and the crowd cheers. I mean CHEERS!. Spencer gives the traditional "Thankyou very much, you've been beautiful!" Corny, yes. Sincere? Who is to say. The studio side doesn't seem too powerful but it does have alot of melody and good songs. Romantic leads over peppy surf rythms, somehow it all works. Prophet Records.

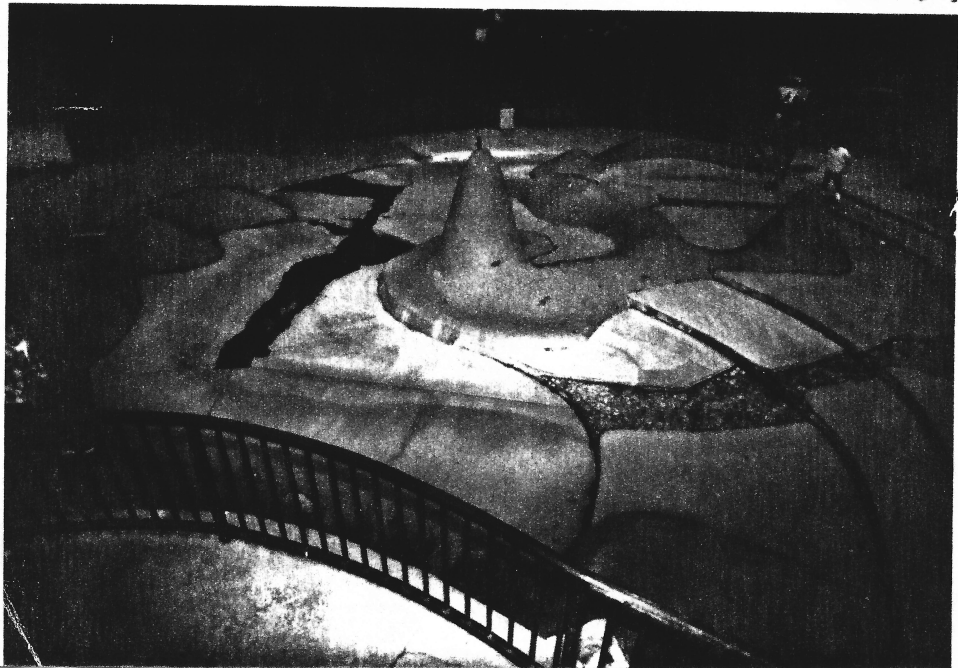

IF you can Name all The PRO-Skaters in this picture, you will win a Faction T-SHIRT! The 2nd correct Letter wins a SHIRT. So send in your answer. Don't be afraid to Try and Name them. HINT: One of them Rides Trackers.

DE ANZA SKATE PARK

TRANSITIONS

This place is cool! IT'S been around along time. IT'S Really a fountain were little Kiddys Play in the water. But its Usually drained. you Have to Ride it a couple a times to get use to it. The Transitions are Harsh in some places. there are millions of Lines Here, the Steps sometimes get in the way. One of the pillars is actually Kickturnable. the Banks are cool to Ride. Some people cry cause they Can't Ride it Because its Not a PERFECT place. THier just wimps! this Place Even Has Lights to light at night, BUT IT'S Better to skate in the daytime, they EVEN Have Restrooms and a picnic ground to eat at. If you are a person who Just Rides one place (Like your Ramp) and Doesn't street skate that much, Don't Skate Here with the Locals cause they don't want to Hear you Cry!!! Find your own Lines and you'll Have Fun!
